He touched, on the different governments on this earth. He stated we the People's party, had the right to vote for a legislative Body and when that was done, that was the extent of our vote in relation to elections. The great commonwealth should have a right to cast their vote. He haped the darlic coulds hanging over the fathers of the nation would be weget away from their inhist through false information that is given them. He urged the young boys and men to read the constitution and get a thorough innerstanding of it. Many of our fathers have been distrachised without judge, jury or trial. The speaker made many other pertinent remarks and closes.

Mr. J. H. Keison was the heart speaker. He stated that he had volod ever since he was twenty-one and hover cash this vote and lost material and the condition of the control of th
